FOX REport

Surry County, Va.

Will of Francis Maybury.      Dated March 20, 1711/12
Recorded June 18, 1712.

Among items to my son Francis Maybury a parcel of land, which I bought of John Freeman as it is recorded in Charles City County, I also give my said son Francis a parcel of land which I bought of Thomas Busby in the said county.

"I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary Fox, one ewe and lamb"

Surry Will and Deed Book, 1709-1715, page 106
( I have a complete copy of this will if you do not have it. B. A. C.)

Will of Elizabeth Moore names same legatees but mentions sons Francis and John West and makes brothers John and Hinshaw Gilliam, Trustees.

Dated June 6, 1713.      R. Feb. 15, 1715.
( I have a complete copy of this will if you do not have it. B. A. C.)

That the Mayburys were not Surry I feel quite certain for they have never been on any of the tithable lists I have found; Neither is the name Gilliam or Fox found. I have not examined the principle tithable lists for ~~Virginia~~ for 1702, which have been published. I take for granted you have however.

The following item was found in the Surry Ordere which shows that the Mayburys or the County authorities of Prince George and Surry knew not in which county they really belonged.

July 3, 1705. Francis Maberry complaining to the Court that whereas the last year he entered himself and with others of his family in the lists of tithables of the said County, where- of he is an inhabitant and accordingly payed his dues, not with- standing which the Sheriff of Prince George County did seize and carry away his tobacco ----- which being considered by the Court, ordered that the said Maybury continue to list himself and other his tithables in this County, etc. -----
Surry order Book 1691-1713, page 266

Mary Fox, relict of George Fox, deced., appeared in Court and relinquished her right of administration on the estate of said deceased to Francis Maybury, Jr.

Francis Maybury, Jr. and Next of Kin to George Fox decd. came into Court and made oath that the said George Fox departed this life without making any will so far as he knows or believes and on his motion and giving security for the just and faithful administration of the said decedent's estate, certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of administration in due form.
